+ E. K.Beeston, report on Grande Prairie, July 1897:

Angus McLean, Labourer, of 8 years service, at £40 per annum, has been in charge of the Post.

He is not included in the Confidential Report, but appears to be a very useful reliable man.

He was just leaving for Scotland on the expiration of his contract, but if he returns it is recommended that he is re-engaged for service at £50 per annum.
