

NAME: WELSH, John

PARISH: Blessington,
Co. Wicklow, IRELAND

ENTERED SERVICE: ca. 1814

DATES: ca. 1796-

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*	Position	Post	District	HBCA Reference
--------------	----------	------	----------	----------------

An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May*

1814-1827			Saskatchewan	B.239/g/7, fo. 23
1827, 5 May	Signed contract as interpreter for 5 years		Saskatchewan	A.32/58

The terms of his 1827 contract granted him a supply of animals and fish for the support of his family and promised "lenity [?] will be granted in laborious work on his consequence of his being wounded."

A.32/58

He may have been the grandfather of Norbert Welsh. See Mary Weekes, The Last of the Buffalo Hunters, New York, 1939.

